BUNCOED LONG ENOUGH.

Editor Morning News:—In view of the fact that the republican party is printing in all their papers "fake" interviews with prominent labor leaders all over the country, and as the Sunday Repository published one from T. L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, I quote the following paragraph from a personal letter sent out by Mr. Lewis to the members of that organization:

"I am not responsible for" interviews appearing in the newspapers, alleged to be from me, that I favor any particular candidate. I have declined to express or give any statement politically for or against any candidate or issue, nor do I intend to do so. This letter will be my answer to all who ask me for any advice along political lines."

Having the evidence at hand to convict the republican party and the republican press of falsity in the Lewis case, is it not reasonable to suppose that other interviews are just as false and as much fake?

The organized men of this country have been buncoed long enough by the republican party, and no matter what republican politicians or papers may say. Organized labor in this campaign is against Taft and his injunction record and will support, generally, the political program of the American Federation of Labor.

Yours for the Truth,
A UNION WORKMAN.

COMMUNICATED.

Minerva, Ohio, Oct. 13, 1908.

Editor Morning News:—I notice in a recent issue of your valuable paper the statement made that W. S. Ruff, one of the Republican candidates for state representative, is supposed to be the nominee of the school book trust or at least will vote favorably to their interests if elected by the voters next November. One of the surprising features of Ruff's candidacy is the fact that he is running on the Republican ticket. Ruff was born and raised in this vicinity and up until about six years ago was one of the strongest advocates against the Republican party. Shortly after leaving for Canton it is learned that he began laying his ropes to become a member of the Ohio legislature, believing no doubt that Stark county would always remain Republican, he therefore in order to make his election surer, became a member of the G. O. P. The question naturally arises, do the voters of Stark county want to support a man who changes his politics for the sole purpose of securing an office. The undersigned is one of the many Republicans who does not believe they will do so.

One Who Knows.

CANAL DOVER.

Canal Dover, O., Oct. 13.—Word of the death of John Adam Wagner, of Carson City, Nevada, but formerly of Canal Dover, was received here today. The death of Mr. Wagner marks the passing of one of the most prominent and wealthy men of the west.

The career of Mr. Wagner was marked by many strange vicissitudes of fortune. He came from humble German parentage, and was born in Bavaria. At the age of 26 he enlisted in the Bavarian army, but tiring of that life he deserted and fled to America, settling in Canal Dover in 1852. He lived in Canal Dover eight years, but in 1860 went westward and founded Carson City, at the time when the gold fever was at its height. During his subsequent career, he accumulated a considerable fortune and at the time of his death he was the owner of a large brewery and several valuable gold mines.

Razor Pleads Not Guilty.

Medina, O., Oct. 13.—Calm, collected, even confident in bearing, Guy Razor of Wadsworth faced a court of justice this morning to plead to the charge of murdering his fiancée, Miss Ora Lee, the factory girl.

In low tones, that could, however, because of the stillness of the room, be heard plainly by all, he voiced his plea, in response to the formal question of Justice Van Dusen.

"Not guilty."

It is believed that the defense will contest the case sharply in the preliminary hearing, in the hope of securing a dismissal before it goes to the grand jury.
